

Welcome to our CES Ezine – our online newsletter. This is an update on our activities in evidence-informed policy and practice to improve outcomes for children, young people and the families and communities in which they live.

New Publication: Review of international evidence on interagency working, to inform the development of Children’s Services Committees in Ireland

At the request of the Department of Children and Youth Affairs, and in support of the Working Together for Children Initiative, CES commissioned a literature review of the evidence base for interagency working to improve outcomes for children. Click here to view this publication

News from CES Northern Ireland

CES office in Northern Ireland continues to add to, and complement the existing capacity in relation to evidence-informed policy and practice. Click here for an update on our Northern Ireland project work with the Colin Early Intervention Community

CES Annual Review – now available online

The following link will bring you to an overview of our work outputs in 2010. Click here to read

CES Web Article: Implementation – getting ‘what works’ into services for children, families and communities

Our web articles aim to bring you helpful, to the point information on targeted topics. This edition focuses on implementation. Click here to read

Listen to our Latest Podcasts on Evidence-informed Policy and Practice

Podcast title: Implementation Science – How to get best practice into human services. Dr Karen Blase Co-director of the National Implementation Research Network and Senior Scientist at the Frank Porter Graham Child Development Institute at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

Podcast title: Implementing an evidence-based programme in Ireland Aileen O’Donoghue, CEO, Archways discusses the experience on the ground.

Podcast title: Programme implementation and maintaining fidelity Prof. Daniel Perkins, Professor of Family and Youth Resiliency and Policy, Penn State University

Report of the Roundtable to Explore the Potential for Social Impact Bonds in Ireland

In April 2011, Clann Credo, the Social Investment Fund, in association with The Atlantic Philanthropies and the Centre for Effective Services hosted a roundtable discussion on the potential for social impact bonds in Ireland. This report attempts to capture a summary of the discussion that took place and seeks to reflect the views of the participants. Click here to read

Latest CES associated training and events

This November CES will host a workshop titled: Disseminating evidence. Click here for further information

New additions to the CES library stock

Click this link to view latest editions to the CES library catalogue. Click here to see latest stock

External stakeholders events listing

This link will bring you to the online calendar of events in the field. Click here

Please feel free to circulate the information within your organisation as appropriate. If you do not wish to receive further emails from the CES please email us at ezine@effectiveservices.org and your details will be removed from our mailing list.